Band Members to Perform At Area Secondary Schools

The largest MSC band ever to go on tour will leave Monday for a three-day schedule of appearances at high schools throughout the area, according to C. Ward Rounds, band director.

The 87 band members will present their first concert at Bethany High School Monday morning, will play that afternoon in Gallatin, and will spend the night at the Chillicothe hotel.

They are scheduled to appear at Chillicothe High School Tuesday morning and at Excelsior Springs that afternoon. Tuesday night will be spent at the Aladdin Hotel in Kansas City, and Wednesday morning the group will perform in Smithville.

The last performance will be Wednesday afternoon at Benton High School in St. Joseph. After dinner Wednesday evening at the Holiday Inn in St. Joseph, the band will return to Maryville.

Among faculty members accompanying the group will be Mr. Rounds and Dr. John L. Smay, Division of Music, and Everett W. Brown, director of field services.

Mr. Rounds believes that band tours are an excellent channel of contact with future students. He emphasized the fact that 70 per cent of the band members are not music majors and indicated this demonstrates the widespread facets of college life.

Memorial Scholarship For Betty S. Martin Established at MSC

A memorial scholarship is being established at Northwest Missouri State College in the name of Betty Seeley Martin, member of the class of 1952, who died Dec. 13 in a Kirkwood, Mo., hospital.

The scholarship will be given each year to a designated student majoring in home economics. The recipient will be chosen from members of Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary home economics fraternity. Any one who would like to contribute to the fund may do so by sending his gift to the Farmers State Bank, Princeton, Mo.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Martin a native of Princeton, and her husband, George B. Martin, were employed as instructors at Lindbergh Junior High, St. Louis County. She was graduated from MSC with highest honors and received her Masters degree from the University of Missouri in 1957.

"Band members do more than perform and entertain on tours — they serve as good will ambassadors and public relations men for MSC," Rounds further stated.

Honor Group Promotes Dramatic Arts, Boosts Bell Tower, Scholarship Funds

The MSC Kappa Sigma Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, a living workshop devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts, promotes worthwhile programs for Northwest Missouri State College.

Last year Alpha Psi gave Paul Levine's "Critic's Choice" as its annual production. This year a melodrama, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" will be cast mainly of Alpha Psi members; however, the forensic fraternity, Pi Kappa Delta, has been asked to help complete the large cast.

Recently, Alpha Psi and the Drama Club honored the Kirksville College Players at an afternoon tea when they presented "The Firebugs" here Feb. 3. Last fall, they participated in the Organizational Fair for the first time since the institution of the Fair three years ago. The display table was set up by David Shestak and Ed-diea Roe.

Alpha Psi has given $100 to the Bell Tower Fund. As in previous years, the money made on last spring's production went into the scholarship fund.

The members, sponsored by Dr. Ralph E. Fulson, pledge drama majors every spring under honorary membership qualifications. Pledges must wear a blue and gold ribbon, carry a volume of Shakespeare, memorize 16 lines by the bard of Avon, understand the Greek alphabet, know where some of the other chapters are, and learn the national officers.

They are formally initiated at a May honors dinner. At that event two awards are given to active members, one for acting and the other for giving stage technical assistance.

This year's officers are Ed-diea Roe, president; Doris Wilson, vice president; Nick Erganian, secretary; Dan McLaughlin, treasurer; and David Shestak, reporter. Plans for spring include the Alpha Psi play and the initiation of several new pledges.

Leaders Cheer Teams at All Home Games

Snell, Dottie Wilson, and Connie Harms. Pictured in the second row are Marcie Severson, head cheerleader, and Pat Noah, who received three-year pins, and Beverly Sheetz, Elaine Sherman, Barbara Harr, Celia Thompson, and Mary Frances Schulenberg, who were awarded two-year trophies.

Eleven lively MSC cheerleaders have completed a successful season with 100 per cent attendance records at both football and basketball home games.

Varsity cheerleaders are Marcy Severson, Jewell, Iowa; Pat Noah, Rock Port; Beverly Sheetz, Braymer; Elaine Sherman and Barbara Harr, Maryville; Celia Thompson, Kansas City, and Mary Frances Schulenberg, Richmond.

Linda Snell, North Kansas City; Connie Harms, Red Oak, Iowa; Harriet Walden, Carrollton, and Dottie Wilson, Chillicothe, led yells at freshman games.

Since attending a week-long SMU cheerleading clinic in Dallas, Tex., last August, the girls have striven to create more student body participation, according to Miss Severson, head cheerleader. She noted that because college crowds are more sophisticated and inhibited than high school crowds, cheerleaders face a steeper task in bringing out the "rah-rah" spirit.

A "spirit trophy" last year proved so successful that the girls this year tried a similar gimmick, a travelling megaphone. The name of the campus organization most noisily represented at each game was painted on the megaphone. The group whose name appears the most times at the end of the season will get to keep the megaphone.

Miss Severson said that the idea of boy cheerleaders is being considered for next season. The girls believe that perhaps a masculine influence would encourage more yelling from male spectators.

Miss Snell thinks that cheerleading provides a great opportunity for freshmen with abundant energy to become involved in college life. Speaking for the freshman cheerleaders, she commented on the helpfulness and cooperation of crowds at all freshman games.

All experienced high school cheerleaders, the girls were not long bewildered by the transition to promoting spirited boosting for college athletics.

Recognition for their year's work came when they were presented awards at the final home basketball game.

'Cats Vie for Title In MIAA Meet

Today and tomorrow, the Bearcat swimming team is meeting conference foes in the first MIAA swimming championship in Warrensburg.

The meet is a four-team affair, with Springfield, Cape Girardeau, and Warrensburg opposing the 'Cats for the title. According to Coach Lewis Dyche, the toughest competition will come from the Warrensburg Mules, 54-41 victims of the Bearcats earlier this season.

Last Saturday, Randy Hanson set two varsity records in leading the team to a 71-24 victory over Washburn, in the final dual meet of the season. He swam a 1:49.6 individual medley and a 2:31 200-yd butterfly.

Senior Frank Fisher won both the 160-and 200 yd. freestyles in his final dual meet for the 'Cats. The remainder of the Bearcat individual firsts went to Linn Jones, in the 500-yd. free; John Eichelis, in the 60-yd. free, and Mark Thomas in the backstroke.

Indoor Track Begins; Six Lettermen Report

MSC trackmen are taking to the track for a brief indoor season, before starting the cinder season in April.

The Bearcats have one meet scheduled with Graceland College before the Conference indoors in Columbia, Mar. 19, but Dr. John Wahrer, track coach, hopes to line up more meets before that time.

The team is deep in lettermen in the middle distances, with Phil Close, Phil Frahm, Danny Hascal, and Pete Miendertsma returning. Supplementing the lettermen are Danny Reed and Steve Clark.

In the sprints, letterman Pete Hager is backed by Mickey Ross, Larry Gruber, Jim Banning, Norman Hallet, Mike Hughes, Butch Hummel, and Sam Ratcliffe.

Distance letterman Kent Cavannah, is receiving help from Gary Castle, John Hull, Walt Sharron, and Roger Stuckey.

The field events feature John Alred, Jerry Grant, Dave Schnathorst, and Kent Oosterstad, in the pole vault; Keith Peterson, Wilson Tamm, and Perry Courtney, in the high jump; Nick Edwards and John Sanden, in the shot put, and Don Pawlowski and Gary Hansen, in the discus.

The first outdoor meet, also with Graceland, will be held Apr. 2, and after that, the Bearcats will meet Peru, Apr. 5; William Jewell, Apr. 16; Peru-Tarkio, Apr. 21, and will go to the Springfield Relays, Apr. 22-23.

On April 28, the team will meet Washburn. They will run in the Graceland Relays, Apr. 30; The Midwestern meet, May 3, and the Conference meet in Springfield, May 13-14.

Wrestlers Pin MU, Face Last Two Foes

The MSC wrestlers smashed their way through a dual meet with the University of Missouri, 23-5, Friday at Lamkin Gymnasium.

Coach Jerry Landwer was pleased with the conquest of the Tigers, commenting that this victory "continued the winning streak over all other Missouri schools."

In the 123 weight class, Harvey Hallum, decisioned Rich McKeever, 13-3, and Jerry Mason, 130, decisioned Steve Tuttle, 7-2. Bill Adams, 137, was decisioned by his MU opponent Ed Lampitt. At 145, Arnold Thompson defeated Barry Roades, 15-1; Ron James, 152, decisioned Ron Grubbs, 16-2; Gary Randall, 160, defeated James Gilroy, 10-4. All-American Al Packer, 167, decisioned Bob Raemer, 10-0; Bob Decklever, 177, decisioned Dave Willis, 10-1. In the heavyweight division, Bob Reece held Lynn Longseth to a draw.

"We have our last two dual matches this weekend," stated Coach Landwer. "Our wrestlers will meet both Graceland College at Lamoni, Iowa, and Omaha University, Omaha, Nebraska."

New Stickers Required

Dean Charles E. Koerble reminds all students who are operating an automobile to remove all old parking and registration permits.

Spring semester permits have been issued. It is a violation of the traffic rules to keep the permits of last semester. Traffic tickets will be given if old stickers are found on any car.

Wrestling Team Brings Honor to MSC

Men Who Forge Ahead Gain National Ranking

What kind of men are they who participate in a minor college sport and earn a national ranking?

What kind of men are they who lose their national ranking to another nationally rated team, then work their way back to the victory column and beat a university squad?

They are the 40 men who participate in MSC's intercollegiate wrestling program, 40 men who drown in sweat, sacrifice at times three meals a day, use their brain as well as brawn. They are the 40 men who are "a real fine group of boys to work with, boys who have a real good attitude," according to Coach Jerry Landwer. They are 40 men who are a pleasure to know, on or off the mats.

They are men like Al Packer, who leads in team points with 48 and a record of 12-0-0. Al, a leading prospect for placing in the NCAA college tournament Mar. 10-11-12 at Mankato and for qualifying for the university division, has notched a 35-1 record, including 33 consecutive wins, in three years of competition. In his only loss, the Bearcat co-captain competed with broken ribs, untaped so his opponent would not know he was injured.

... Ron "Jesse" James, who ranks second in total points with 39. Tied with Packer for the most pins, five during the season, "Jesse" has an 11-1-0 standing and the record for the fastest pin this year, 1:02.

... Arnie Thompson, 9-1-1 and 38 team points, who wrestled "as fine a match as we've seen" against the University of Missouri.

... Jerry Mason, 9-2-0, who is tied with Al Borkowski with 36 team counters. Before a knee injury sidelined this candidate for Athlete of the Month for January, Jerry recorded eight straight victories.

... Harvey Hallum, 10-1-1 and 35 points, who undefeated in his sophomore year at MSC. Hallum, as well as Thompson, James, Mason and Borkowski, are expected to place in the college tournament.

... promising freshmen Dennis Stephens, Bob Decklever, Bill Mueller, Jerry Wilson, and Dennis Bunche and transferees like Bill Rex, twice Iowa state high school champion.

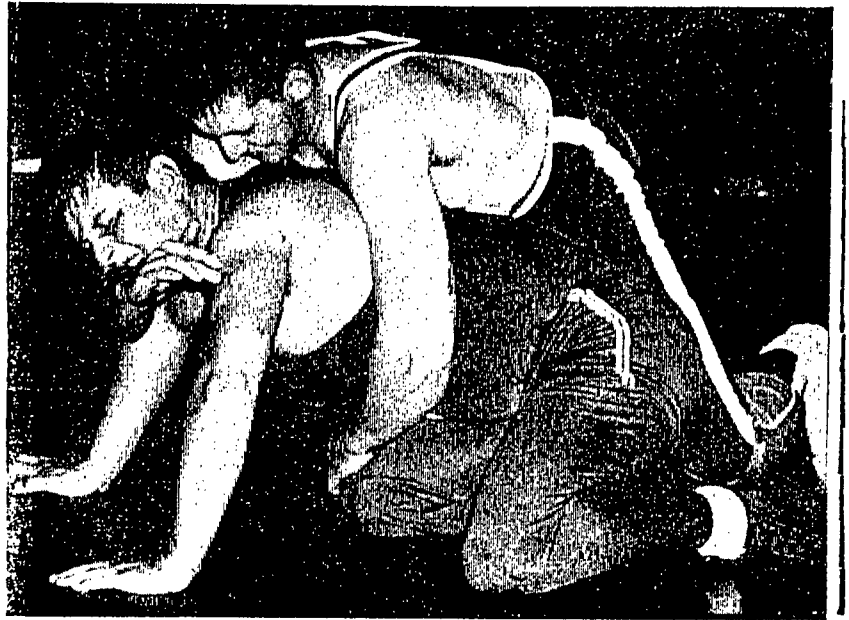

... the other 30 men who contribute their "sweat, blood, toil, and tears" to the sport they love.

... like Coaches Jerry Landwer, in his fourth year at MSC, and Gary Collins, in his first year.

What kind of men are these?

They are each a man's man.

Sign Language Helps Student Adjust as She Learns English

EXCITEDLY READING letters from home, foreign student Carmen Chang and Lyndel Ross, her roommate, discuss the current happenings in Panama City.

A sparkling smile and a bubbling personality are typical of Carmen Chang, a petite freshman from Panama City, Panama.

On her first trip to the United States, Miss Chang arrived at MSC a month ago. Although she speaks little English, she came here to college to learn the language. Presently, she is enrolled in speech, beginning Spanish, reading skills, English, and folk dancing. Miss Chang is enthusiastic about her studies and is making much progress in her endeavor to learn English.

The youngest of her family, Miss Chang has two married sisters and one brother, studying in Monterrey. Her father is a professor at the University of Panama and her mother, second headmaster of a primary school. Her grandfather's Chinese descent accounts for the origin of her last name.

Miss Chang has found it difficult to adjust to Midwest wintery weather but enjoys the glistening snow. Flashing an impish grin, she admits that she prefers Spanish love songs to the Beatles. She and her roommate, Lyndel Ross, talk constantly in a mixture of Spanish, English, and pantomime. They indicate that sign language has really been an asset.

Miss Chang loves the United States and describes it as "a big country with many kind people." She has been especially impressed with the friendliness and generosity of MSC students.

They Said It Couldn't Be Done

We've finally done it!

In recent years the United States and the Soviet Union have done it. Although measurably miles and politically poles apart, our cultural exchanges have been immensely successful. Troupes of performers here and there have entertained and promoted understanding, even brotherhood, at the same time.

Kirksville and Maryville, on the other hand, are a little more than 120 minutes apart. Until two weeks ago, their interscholastic activity was limited to battle on the gridiron, the hardwoods, the pool or an occasional visit by a college choir or band or debate team. Two weeks ago, however, a cast of players from Kirksville presented "The Firebugs," a Sheridan farce, for the students of Northwest Missouri State College as an exchange play.

Until this season, the other state schools meant an opponent in tennis or track and a place for the college musicians to visit. Now the other state institutions represent more accurately the sister schools they are, the sister schools they must be as Missouri's educational system continues to grow.

What lies ahead? Could the schools exchange top teachers for a day of lectures or sponsor current event discussions with the panels composed of faculty from various schools? Could they cooperate to bring an outstanding commentator or statesman, educator or businessman to a common convention place? Could the schools form a union of representative students for the exchange of ideas?

As the "university system" continues to evolve in Missouri, the state colleges will inevitably become better and closer sisters in their progress, their problems, their programs. We're on the right road; how far can we go?

Student Forum

Dear Student (Sorry, ladies; men only):

I am writing you about a matter concerning you and your future. During the coming semesters you will probably be thinking about which branch of the service is most suitable to your needs and desires.

I am sure with the expected increase in the draft call for the next few months you have given considerable thought to, or are planning how to, continue your education and meet your military obligation. The Reserve Officer Candidate Program (ROC) can help you stay in college throughout the doubtful months. How? The ROC Program helps fulfill part of your military obligation while still in college and will prepare you for performing active duty as an officer in the Navy.

The ROC Program is now open to college sophomores and juniors who are interested in building their future. The ROC Program, after completion of college, will prepare you for leadership, both in your chosen profession and in the U. S. Naval Reserve. The Navy offers training for such leadership in its Reserved Officer Candidate School.

Each year the Navy selects a large group of college students for officer training. They attend two 8-week summer courses at the Navy's Reserve Officer Candidate School at Newport, R. I. The first training session is scheduled for the summer between the sophomore and junior year of college and the second session between the junior and senior years. With the two summer courses completed, these men will receive a commission as Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve, upon graduation.

The ROC Program is designed for those who plan for the future and will enhance employment opportunities upon completion of your military career. Participation in the ROC Program will defer you from active duty until after graduation.

For more information see me in the Den on Friday, Mar. 4, between 9:15 and 12:30. If

Cautions on Letters Of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation are an important factor when selection committees review applications for fellowships, assistantship, admission to graduate schools, or jobs.

It is strongly recommended that a brief resume of the applicants' educational background be sent to professors when requesting letters of reference. After all requests for recommendations have been completed, applicants should carefully check with the placement bureau to see that all those letters have been properly processed and returned.

A good resume might include:

1. Schools attended
2. Cumulative grade point average; grade point in your field
3. Honors, awards, or scholarships held in undergraduate work
4. Field of study that is to be pursued
5. Courses taken from the professor and grades earned
6. Vocational aspirations
7. Any pertinent information that would assist the professor to write a definite statement of recommendation
8. If more than one recommendation is desired from the specific professor, the nature and number of each should be emphasized.

It is courteous to notify the instructor that a letter of recommendation is being sought. A greater degree of familiarization may be attained, for it is this element that determines the true value of a recommendation. It is also worthy to note that letters of reference exposing both mediocre and exceptional qualities give a more-rounded picture of the applicant and have a greater effect on the recipient than does one showing only A-1 qualities.

Union Board Labors Constantly for Students

WALK-OUT DAY is the topic of discussion among Dianna Brown, Darwin Bears, and Kack Miller, Union Board officers, who are planning surprises for the coming first springtime holiday to be signaled by the ringing of the bell on the mall.

Sometime in the near future Don Robbins and other Union Board members will poll the student body on such topics as the success of Union Board activities and ways to improve the board.

Robbins heads the improvement committee, one of 12 that functions from week to week to provide special events and services for students at MSC. During the school year, a week rarely passes without some Union Board project in operation.

Den dances and movies are held on a regular basis. The Union dance and movies committees, respectively, led by Jim Cook and Jim Johnson, are in charge of these events. Dottie Ray and her publications committee make many signs such as those announcing special activities. The publicity committee, headed by Jack McClure, releases information for publications in the newspaper.

Ken Bassett's assembly committee was responsible for presentation of "Stop the World; I Want to Get Off." The Union Board central party committee, chaired by Joe Logan, sponsored the Christmas dance and co-sponsored the Tower dance. Steve Ford and his committee decorated for both dances. The special activities committee, under the leadership of Bob Foster, served refreshments.

Jerry Knauss, chairman of the tournament and game committee, recently returned from Lawrence, Kas., where an MSC team participated in the intercollegiate bowling tournament. Toni Johnson and the fine arts committee have bought a folding bulletin board for the upper Union area. This committee also secures different art exhibits, including original prints. Bob Jacobsen heads the treasury committee. President Robert P. Foster allocates funds in the college budget for Union Board activities on the basis of Union Board recommendations.

Walk-out day, scheduled during the spring this year, is under the supervision of the Union Board. Tentative plans include an assembly, a dance, and some unrevealed ideas. Another project in the planning is the mid-March assembly - dance. Count Basic and his orchestra and the Ford Caravan, starring Roger Miller, were scheduled to appear at MSC but cancelled their performances because of various circumstances.

Sponsored by Bill Needels, Miss Karen Licklider, dean of women, and Luther Belcher, business manager, the board is functioning within its new constitution for the first time this year. Other changes will occur when the board moves into its office space in the new Union. It will sponsor more educational activities, such as wood and leather working.

Students interested in participation on the Union Board fill out a form concerning preference of committees. When a vacancy arises, the chairman selects the new member from this file of applications. A student must spend at least one semester working on his respective committee before he is eligible to become its chairman.

Executive officers include the chairman, who is elected by the student body at the same time the Student Senate officers are chosen, the vice-chairman, who is chosen from and by the Union Board, and the secretary, who is either elected by the Union Board or appointed by the retiring secretary. Present officers include Darwin Bears, Kack Miller, and Dianna Brown, respectively.

Another problem encountered this year included participation in all-school events, especially formal activities. The board has been debating the possibility of discontinuing them. Den dances have also been a topic of discussion.

... Ye Stroller finds that the problems of modern day people may be less difficult than those of their predecessors.

Found tacked on the door of one MSC coed's room was the following quotation: "Most of the students were skeptical, and rowdies were plenty. Wine and liquor were kept in many rooms; intemperance, profanity, gambling, and licentiousness were common. I hardly know how I escaped..."

—Thomas Paine (1793)

... With the increasing enthusiasm for women's judo lessons on MSC campus, it seems that the men are becoming quite cautious concerning whom they date. After all, it would be embarrassing to be flipped in front of a residence hall by a delicate creature of the opposite sex.

... Deciding to broaden his knowledge of history, Ye Old Stroller discovered this interesting bit of information in Behind the Birches by Miss Mattie M. Dykes:

Mrs. Evangeline Scott Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Scott, both alumni of the Normal, as MSC was formerly called, was the first student to complete the entire course offered by the College. She attended kindergarten through the grades, high school, and college at MSC without having had any work elsewhere.

Her daughter, Marjorie Hitchcock, is presently enrolled at MSC as a sophomore.

... To test the girls' ability to read signs, one dorm mother, Mrs. Hamilton, and head counselor, Joyce Huffman, put up the following sign in the Perrin Hall lounge: "Please do not take the newspapers out of the lunch."

Much to their dismay it was almost two weeks before a coed finally noticed the mistake on the sign and brought it to Mrs. Hamilton's attention.

... To the enrollee who had to pay $5 to change his schedule because the instructors got changed on a section, the Stroller extends his damp handkerchief.

But to the student who fell down too many honor points and raged out of the registrar's office, the phantom watcher advises: "Grow up! After all who made those grades?"

... Have you noticed more men in the library and less of MSC's male population in the den?

Has Uncle Sam's scholarship program to Saigon University stirred an increasing interest in studies here at MSC?

Dr. Crist Starts Homecoming Plan

Nominations for Homecoming co-chairmen will be made next week, according to Dr. LeRoy Crist, Homecoming adviser.

Doctor Crist led a discussion of regulation changes and revisions at a meeting of Homecoming representatives Tuesday. Students from various campus organizations expressed their views on such topics as procedures for queen elections and Homecoming co-chairmen selections. Co-chairmen nominees must have had at least one year's experience on the Homecoming committee. One boy and one girl will be elected.

Each organization on campus is entitled to one representative on the Homecoming committee whether it has an entry in the activities or not. It may have a representative for each division of entries—parade, house decorations, or variety show. This allows each campus organization a maximum of three voting representatives.

Next meeting of the committee of representatives will be at 4 p.m. Tuesday in Room 201 of the Industrial Arts Building.

Schneider, and Carole Posler. Ray Reynolds and Phil Fine will be membership chairmen. Gary Tietz will be librarian, and Carole Posler, Gary Tietz, and Lynette Cole, reporters.

Plans for the faculty tea held recently were discussed. The next SNEA meeting will be Wednesday.
